Friendship

Friendship and work are the keys to happiness and success in life. With friends to offer moral support and with work directed toward one's goals a person can accomplish almost any task he undertakes. Friendship and work will allow one's most ambitious dreams to become reality, and will enable and encourage a person to

... reach for the highest goal

Interest

Individuality became the key word in sports. Larry Hultz held the basketball honor of high point man in the SRV League.

With credit to Coach Bob Ellis and all the wrestlers we hold the sixth consecutive district win plus an undefeated season. Aiding in first place victories at district are Steve Snyder 106 lbs., Gary Golsin 115 lbs., Jon Watson 141 lbs., and Lynn Morrison 168 lbs. Second place honors go to Gilbert Tuning 157 lbs., and Ron Story 183 lbs. Winning third place are Leonard Abbott 98 lbs., Lynn Sorenson 130 lbs., and Jerry Fritts 136 lbs. Jim Hopkins 123 lbs. and Merlin Means 148 lbs. win fourth place ribbons. Lynn Morrison goes all the way to state to win a gold medal.

Graduation '69'

Carolyn Seely is happy to have her diploma.

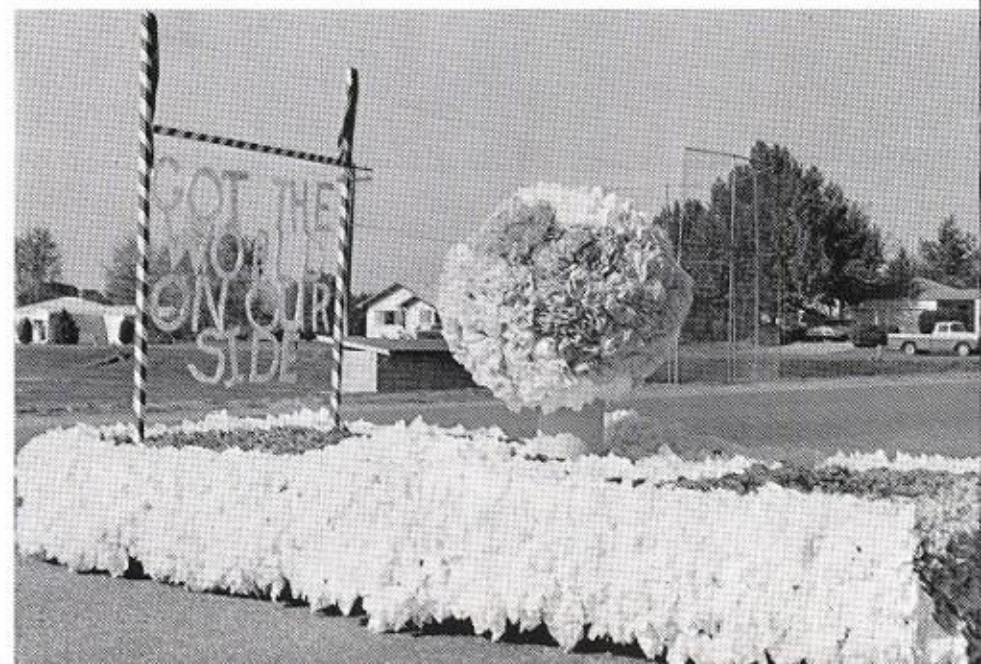

The excitement of Homecoming Week was heightened by spirited slogans and special student dress. Student dress ranged from our school colors, red and white, to psychedelic colors, all well calculated to promote school spirit. Greetings such as 'Beat Those Grizzlies' replaced 'Hi', booster buttons sold fast, and excitement showed on everyone's face. Students, teachers, and spectators alike wore excited expressions when the colorful drill team, band, queen candidates, and floats formed for our great Homecoming Parade.

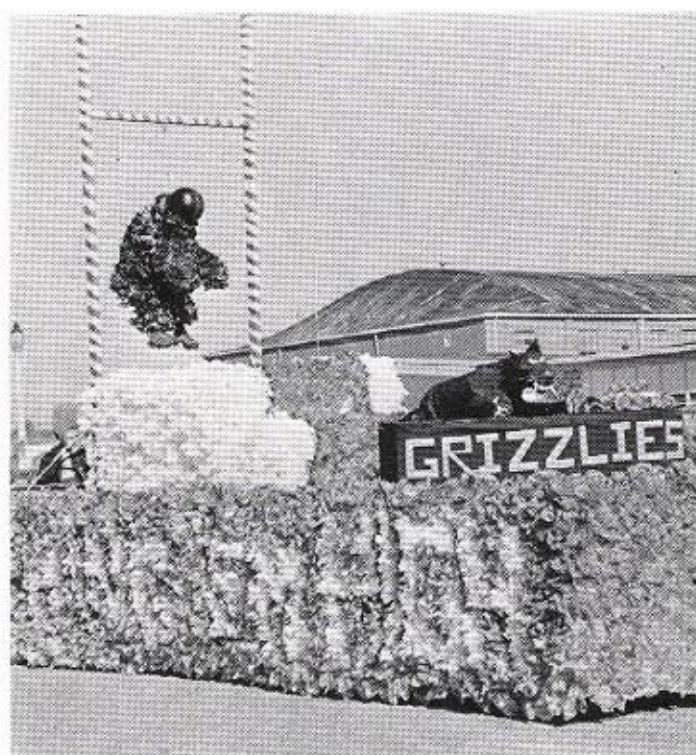

The world fell apart for the Seniors when they learned that "Got the World on our Side" placed last.

Parade Attracts Sunshine Spirit

Overjoy filled the Sophomores when Jon Watson announced "We'd Run a Mile for a Touchdown" as first place.

"Hang'em High" put the Freshmen in third place.

Junior's psychedelic float of "Send'em on a Trip" was judged second best.

Panther Club Initiation

Applying the paddle of justice to Will are Mike and Van.

Jeff, Norman, and Jim make Panther member elect the spotlight of attention.

Van gives a sly grin as he aims for his target.

Proud new members of Panther Club are Jim, Will, Robin, Bill, Gary, Jim, Rod, Bruce, and Jay.

Fight for Offices

Speaking on behalf of Representative James McClure is Jim Smyth.

Supporting the Republican party are Marilyn, Alyssa, Jan, Carolyn, and Jane.

Leading the hecklers were Ron and Van.

Defending her views for Nixon is Bonnie Hoagland.

The Democrats, Paul, June, Linda, and Pete, rally for their candidates.

Ending another school day Von, Jane, and Ken pick their separate paths to go home.

Typist Judy Trunnell prepares an important paper for the office.

Student Life

Pep Club is in a blur of action boosting the teams morale.

Wallace for President

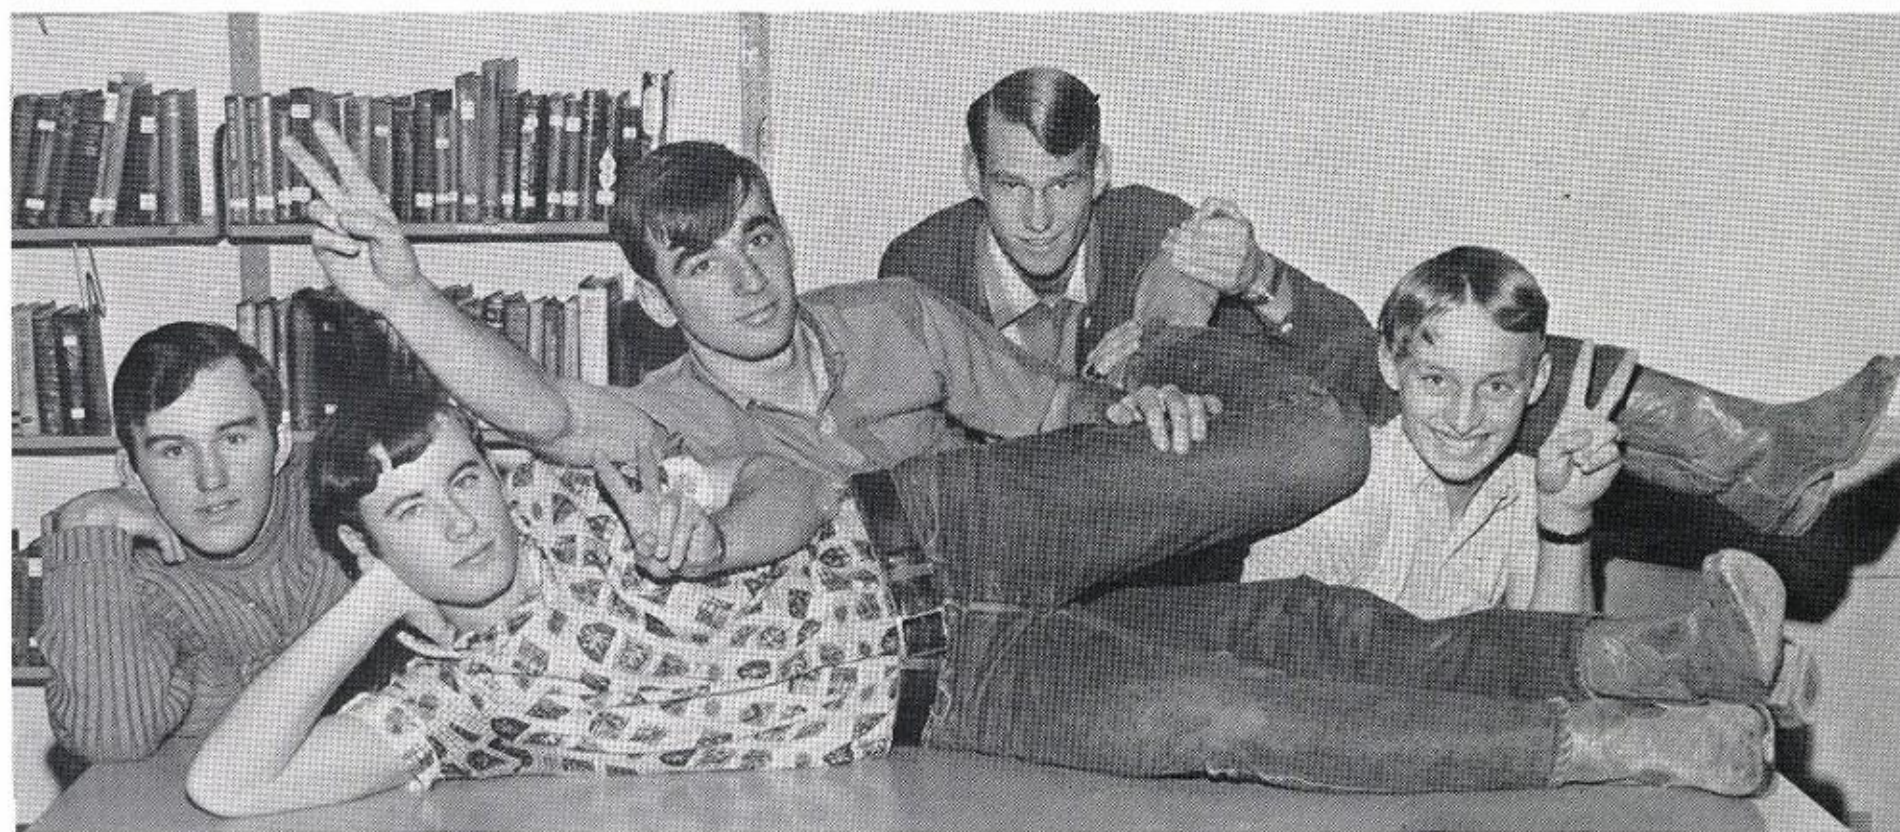

Mr. Iaderosa carried a strenuous campaign for Wallace. A favorite past time was to drop in at Wallace Headquarters to hear the support he gave for the very conservatives.

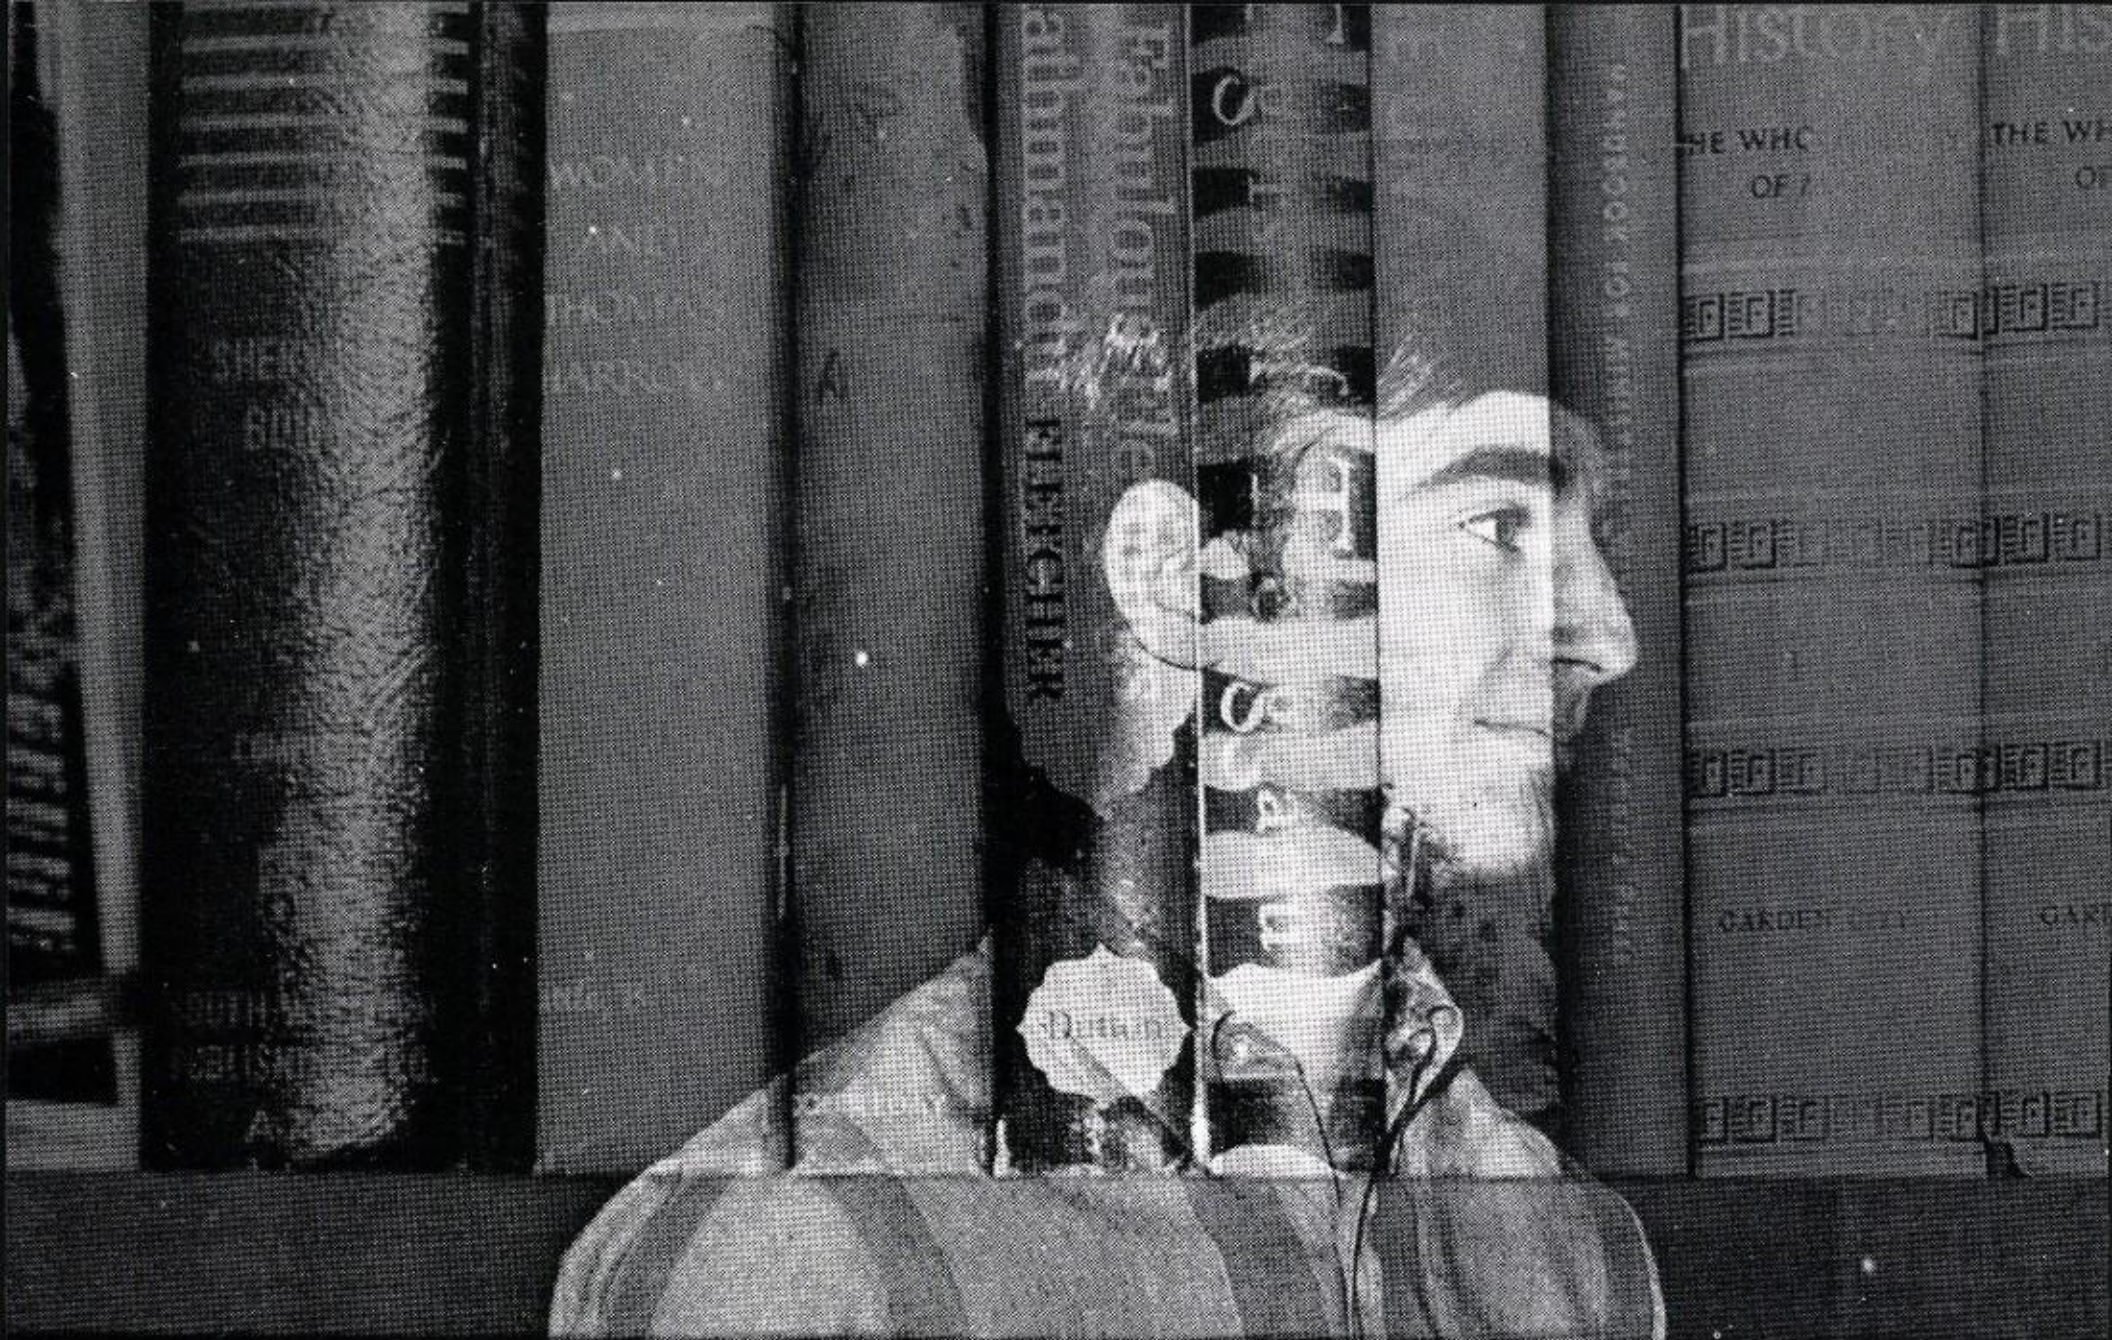

Work and studying can not be discarded for around school classes are tough.

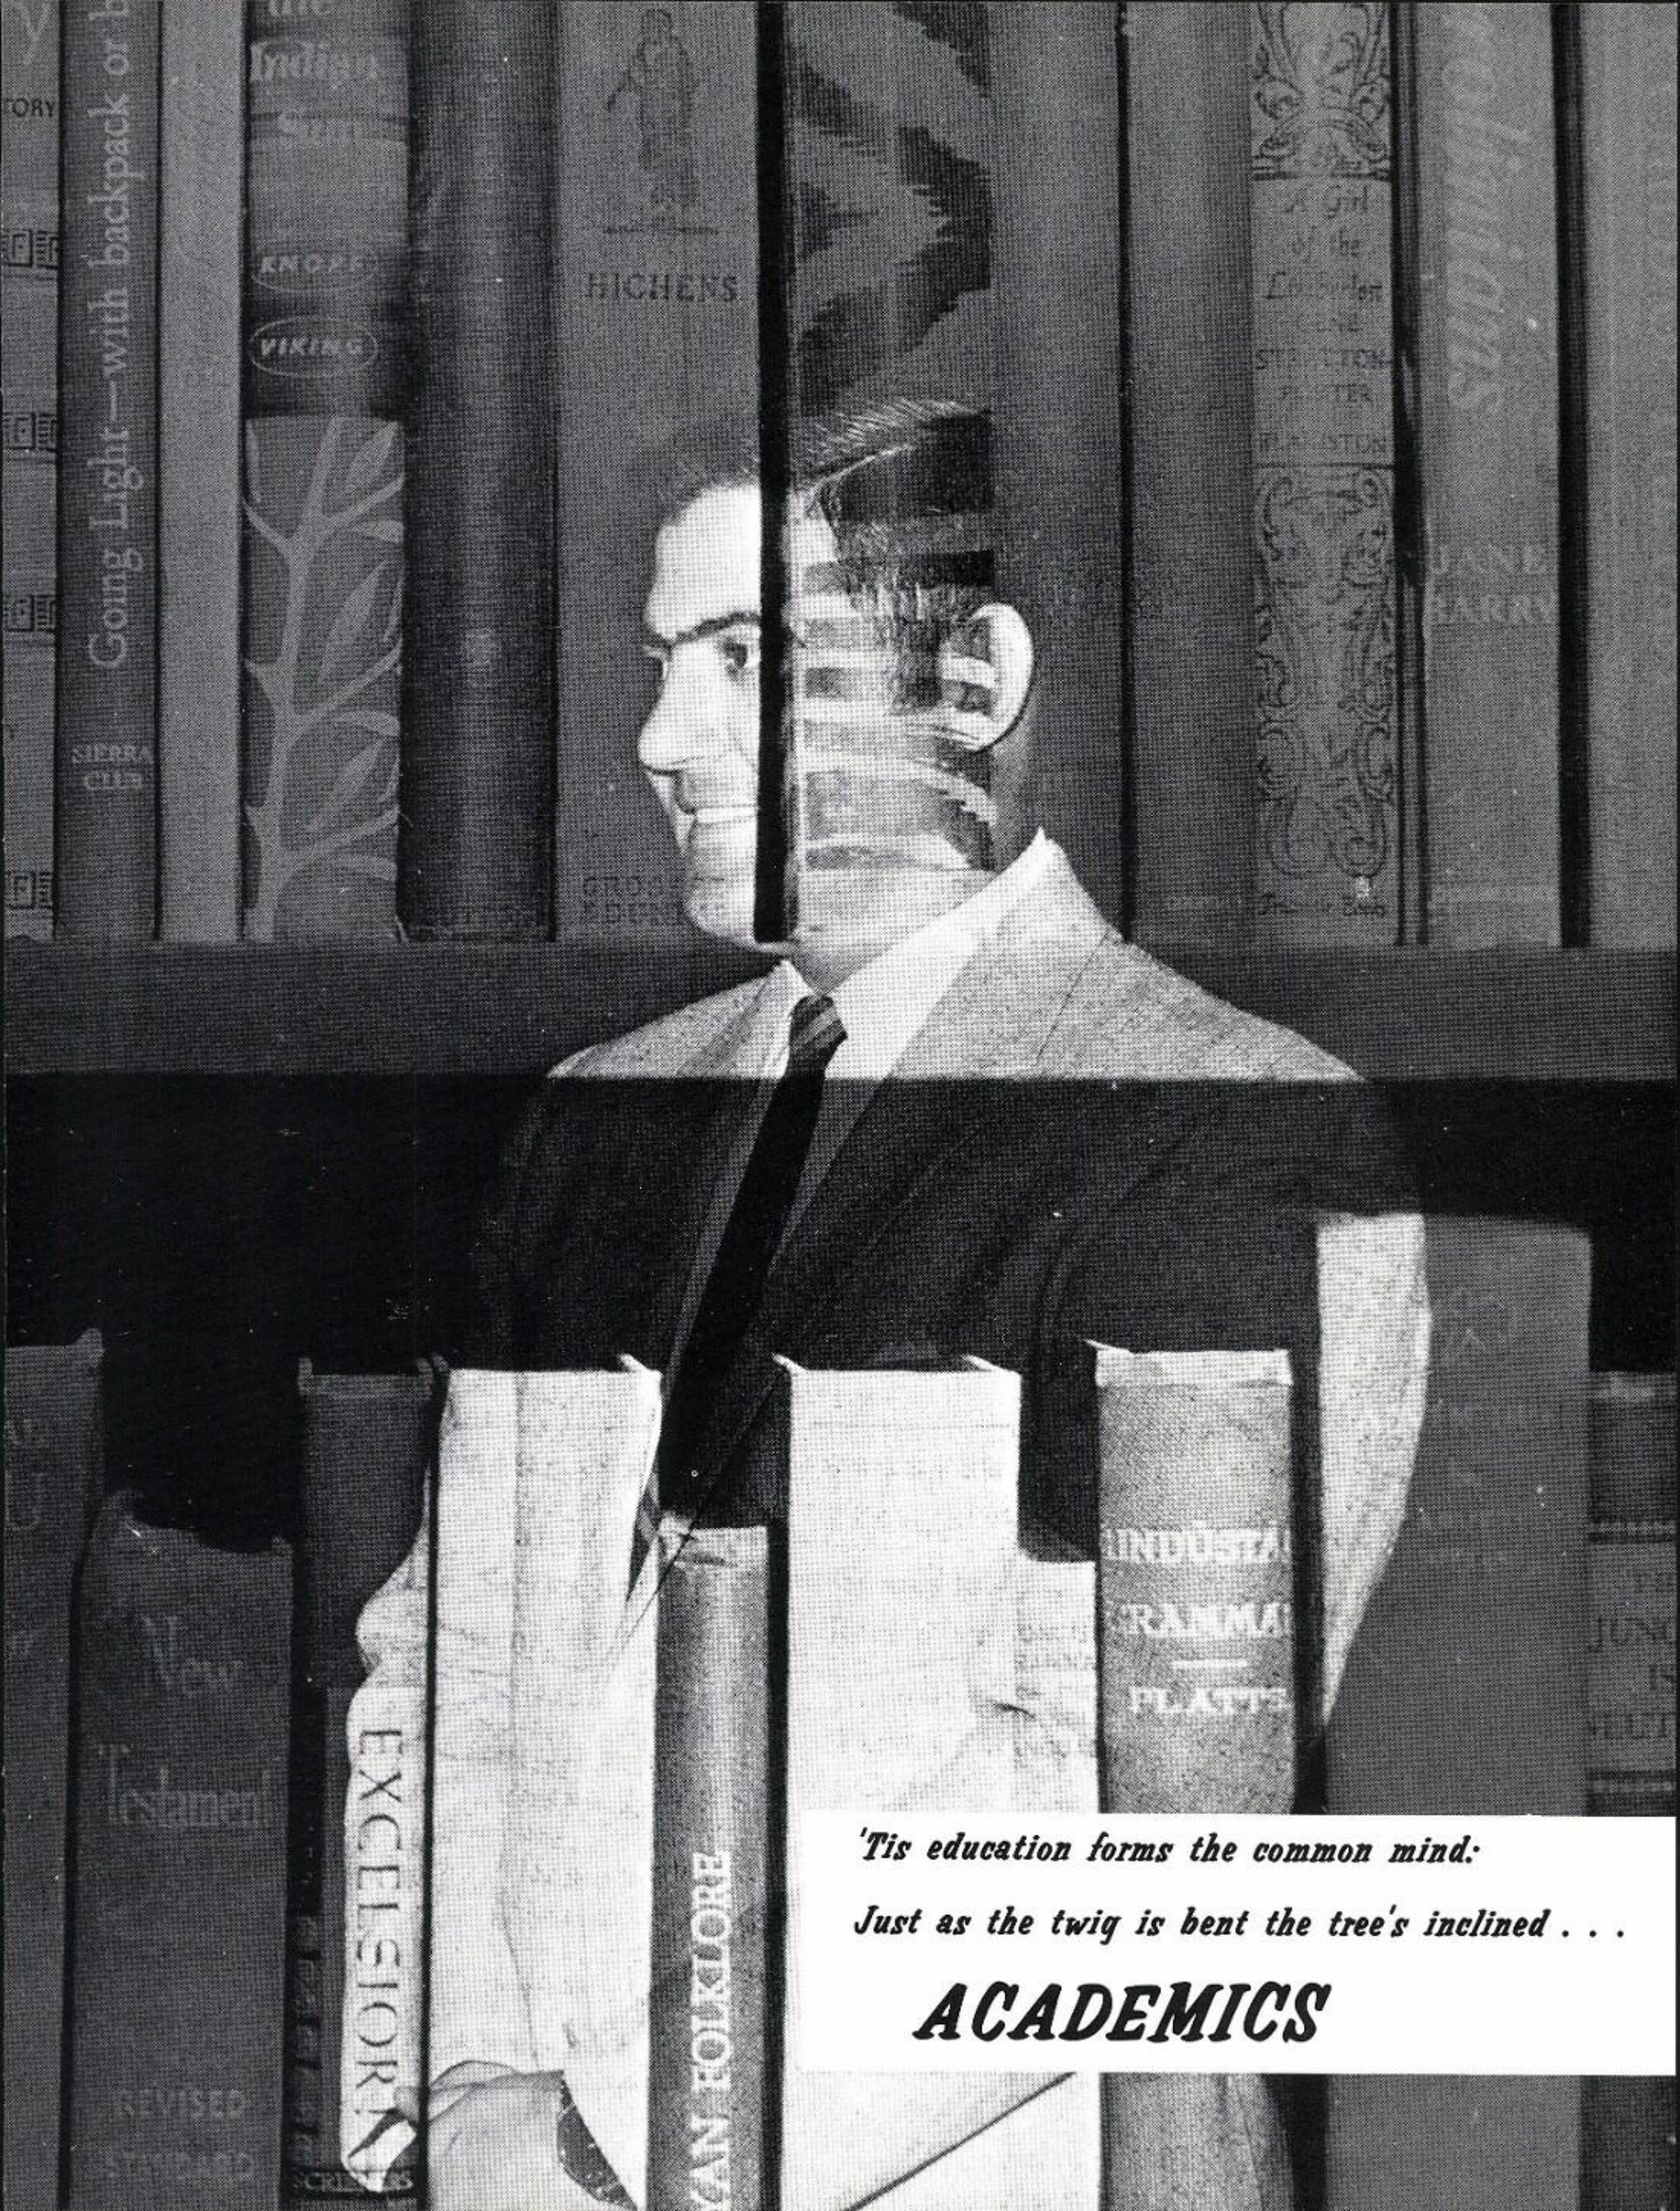

Too bashful for pictures is Mr. Iaderosa.

Among the peaceful students at Parma are Bill, Paul, Jon, Steve and Lynn.

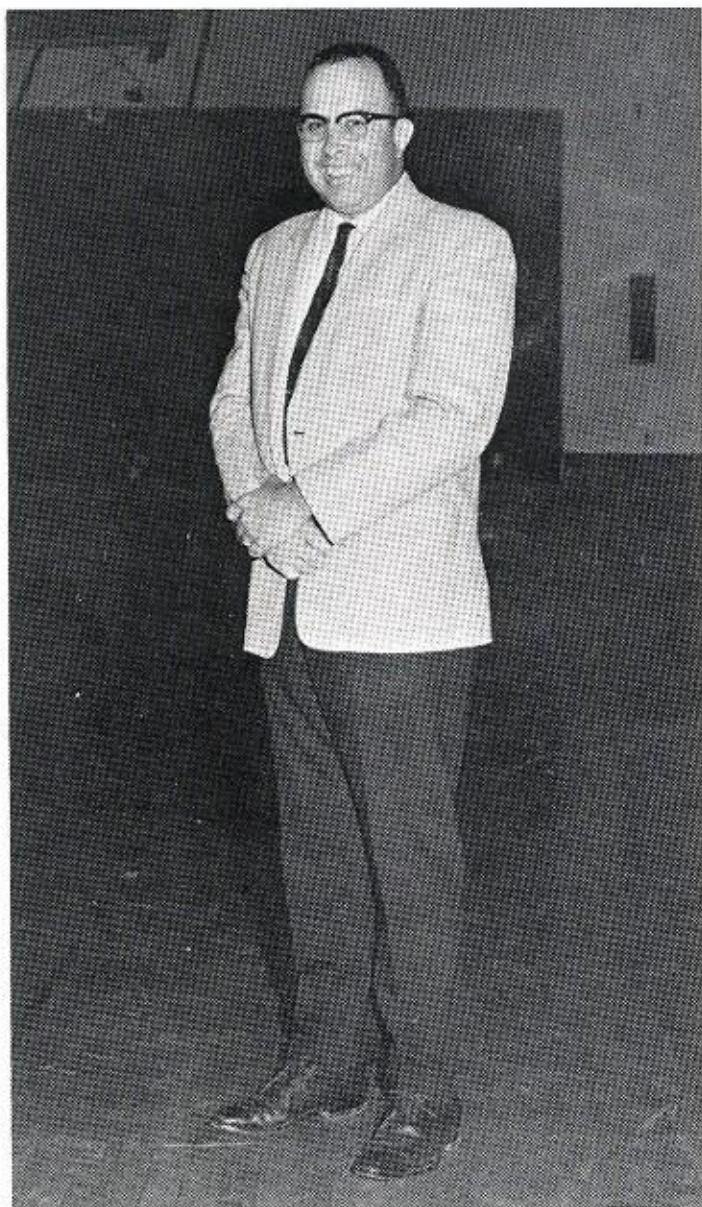

'Tis education forms the common mind:

Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined . . .

The Parma High School basketball team ended the season with a 4-18 overall record. Although it was a frustrating year for the panthers they showed determination plus desire and hustle throughout the entire season. Lack of experience and lack of height plagued them as they had only three seniors on the team. The team was paced by Larry Hultz who averaged 20 points per game during the regular season and won the overall SRV A II scoring championship with over 400 points.

Freshmen

Heading the Freshman class are Vice-President: Rick Maggard, Secretary: Sandi Murray, President: Don Wilson, Treasurer: Rick Brown.

A delightful comedy about two boys who find themselves in a hard-to-explain-mess. Huck Finn is mistakably taken for the Phelps' nephew, Tom Sawyer, who was to come to the Phelps' home on Thursday from St. Petersburg. The two are looking for a captured slave boy, Tim, who has run away from his master. It ends with Tom and Huck explaining who they really are, after creating a near disaster, and scaring the Phelps to death.

First Row: Lynn Wolgamott, Jackie Keller, Robyn Nelson, Cathy Carter, Vicki Zurcher, Sandra Rucker, Kathy Noble, Marcy Emery, Linda Norberg, Sue Obendorf, Mary Uranga, Jeanne Sutton, Kip Forsdick, Mike Trunnell, Randy Talich, Bim Lewman. Campaigns, Elections, New Officers

Secretary Cheryl Shuff, Vice-President Mike Yamada, and Treasurer Barbara Klahr will assist Lynn in leading the ASB.

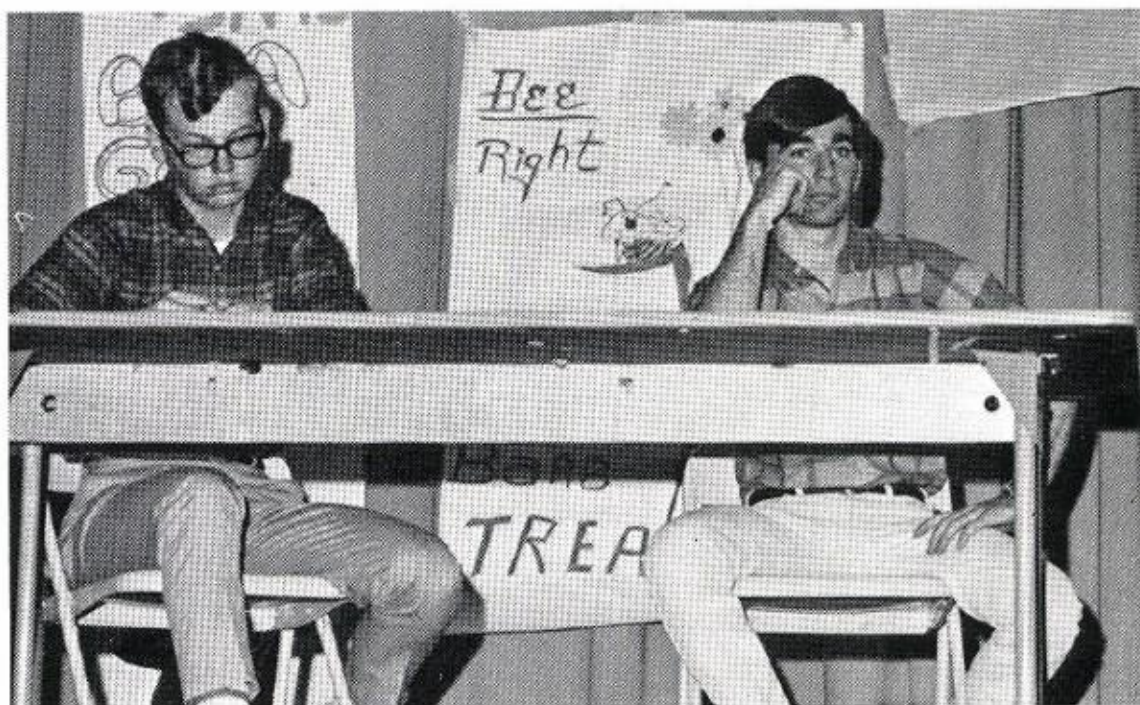

Senior class President, Bill Coles, speaking on the attributes of Robin Johnson.

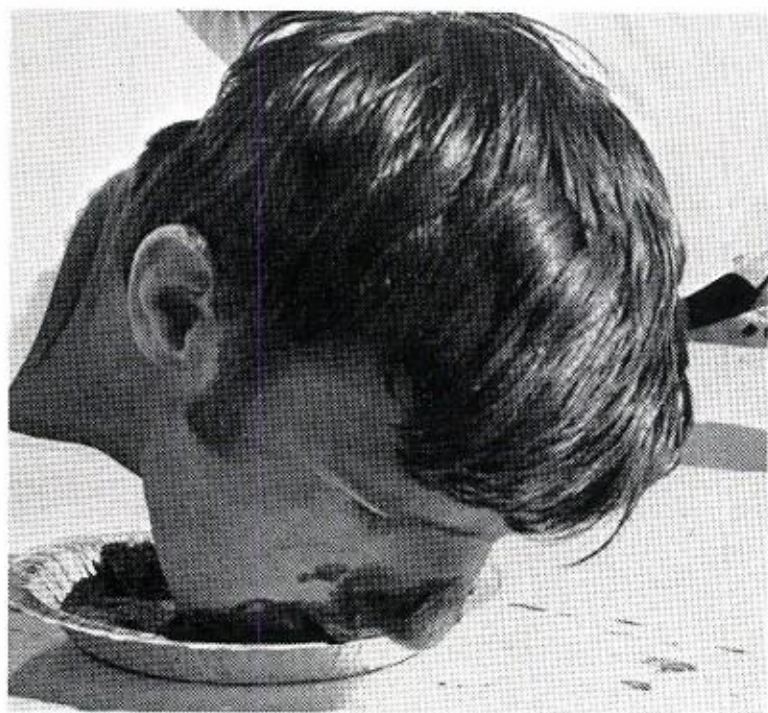

Running candidate for President is Jim Hopkins.

The student body elections got into full swing the week of April 4 with bright campaign posters covering every available wall space in the halls and speeches being made by the candidates and their campaign managers. The candidates for the election were: President: Lynn Sorenson, Jim Hopkins; Vice-President: Mike Yamada, Robin Johnson; Treasurer: Alyssa Norberg, Barb Klahr, Ron Abbott; Secretary: Julia Paul, Juanita Padilla, Cheryl Shuff; Chaplain: Jan Winkle, Jim Coles.

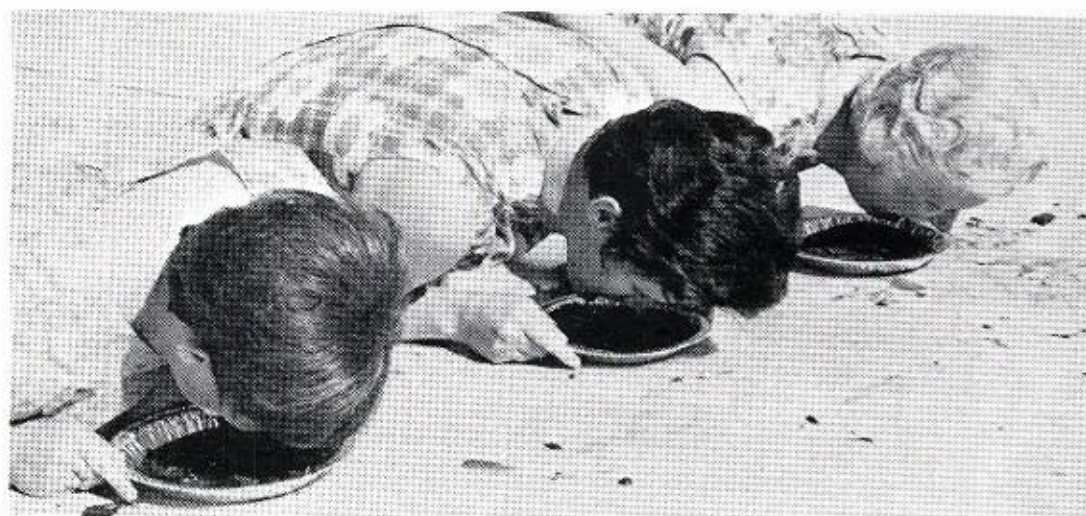

Secretary Jay Roberson and President Jon Watson will retire to leave the school in the hands of the 1969-1970 officers.

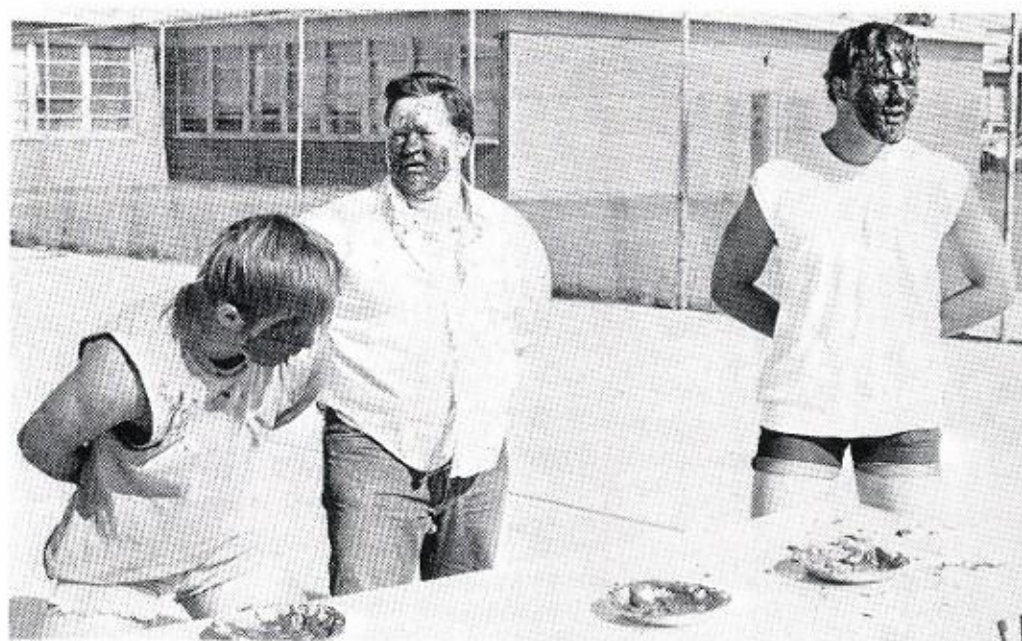

A mighty speech won the office of Chaplain for Jim Coles.

Junior, Lynn Morrison, is the winner of the pie eating contest.

Buck-Buck Contest proves the Senior boys are tough.

Mrs. Leigh is a teacher participant.

Junior Judy Trunnell wins first place.

Assemblies - Entertaining

"Who's Crazy Now?" had many hilarious scenes like this.

The AFS foreign exchange students presented an interesting assembly.

And Informative

The U of I players made Shakespeare come alive on our stage with "The Shrew."

Volunteer 'cheerleaders' added pep to our pep assemblies.

PHS's next year's officers are sworn in by Jon Watson.
